

Strings
Speak
Mountains

~

Cottage

~

Song Companion

A Small Cabin Below The Misty Mountains

~

I've had this same feeling for years
Wishing I could disappear
Rid of questions & queries
To make room for something more

Days blending together, all the same
Doing what I have to, to get by okay
This doesn't sound awful for me
Because it's something I can happily see myself doing

Watching the landscape roll from my doorstep
And the rain hitting each blade of grass
No clock to tell me how much time has passed
Just the sun and moon, and what I want to do

Opal gleam from the snow outside
A small space we'll confide
In the simple routine of this life

Four walls and you
Soft lighting and a nice view
Peace and serenity
Solitude for you and me

Notes

~

This single was released on May 21st, 2020. It was submitted to AUREA as a part of the Aromantics Create Pride event. It was released with 'A Small Cabin Below The Misty Mountains' as an accompanying poem.